

Q1) which category of movie is rented out most from the stores?

As we can see on y axis no of time movie rented out and on x axis category of movie is mentioned.

As we can see output shows that sports type movie is rented out most from the stores.

Q2) who was the Highest paying customer from february to may in 2017?

As you can see this data set is of Top 10 highest paying customer from month February to may.

As you can see Eleanor Hunt have paid the most to the store.

Q3) How many rented film were Returned on time,late and early?

As we can see most of the film were return early while less movie were return on time.

Q4) What is the Average rental rate for each category?

As you can see average rate was calculated for each category.

As from result we can tell that game category has highest average rate and action category has lowest average rate.